After that she knits flesh and the devil and the-crimps, stockings for the children. To-day we do not consider a man 'grown up' until he is 30, and a girl who marries under 25 is pitled as the victim of youthful Imprudence."

"The heroine of to-day," said the charming bachelor of 40s "is a vastly more interesting person. She is a brilliant woman about 30, you will notice, often with a girl of 20 as a foil, whose insipidity only serves to make the charm of the other more manifest. And W. C. Achi and wife-J. R. Bisho... g it does! In real life the girl just out 4 of school has little attraction compared with t hat she has acquired at 28 or 30. The added experience makes the added charm. Humanity is outgrowing the embryo stage where extreme youth has fascination. It wants accomplishment-maturity. The latest dictum of science, you may know, is that a man does not reach his full mental develop-7 ment until he is 40, nor a woman until 11 she is 35."
